

Further to your information request FOI/EIR 25/26-039, please find your question and our response below.

Request:

I'd like to request some information regarding your organisation's current use of Procurement and eTendering systems. Could you kindly assist with the following questions?

1. What eTendering or procurement system(s) does your organisation currently use?
2. When does your current contract for these systems expire?
3. Are there any planned upgrades or changes to your existing procurement or eTendering platform(s)? If so, when?
4. Are there plans to go to market for a new procurement or eTendering system? If so, what is the expected timeline?
5. What is the annual contract value for your current procurement/eTendering system(s)?
6. Who is responsible for managing your organisation's procurement technology? Please provide their name, job title, and contact details if available.

Response:

East Cambridgeshire District Council is a small local authority and we do not use an eTendering or procurement system.
